Dear Son

You can do as you please about coming home
If you conclude to come Sell your Books & Uniform for all you can or leave them with need for selling I need some one in the Store very bad you will have to work as hard as the ballance of the clerks in fact there is no rest here for any one of us we are all well. I went all day yesterday in a run & the Sun day before have hired Redford Dorsett to ride for me Till you be contented & steady hand
Your Father
T. W. Ford
